STAY FOR A WEEKEND

Harbour Island designer Trish Becker shares her insider weekend musts

1 / BREAKFAST

The Landing's ricotta hotcakes with honeycomb butter are as divine as Harbour Island itself.

2 / OLD-SCHOOL LUNCH

Sip Sip continues to reign supreme as the de facto midday hub of local life. Order the lobster quesadilla.

3 / ISLAND SPECIALTY

At Queen Conch, every conch salad is assembled from scratch, so watch your conch, tomatoes, onions, sour orange, and goat peppers go from chopping board to plate.

4 / ELEUTHERA ESCAPE

The sandy strands, coves, and limestone caves here may change your life. Take a water taxi and arrange for a car from Fine Threads to check out Surfer's Beach, Winding Bay, and Ten Bay Beach, along with Preacher's Cave, The Queen's Bath, and Glass Window Bridge. Head to Whale Point for crafted cocktails, organic produce, and local seafood at Tally Bar, the restaurant at Ocean Tally, an alluring property with stunning new cottages.

5 / ICONIC COCKTAIL

You must have at least one Goombay Smash—the Bahamas' official drink is composed of white rum, dark rum, and coconut rum in pineapple juice with a Myers's floater. The Rock House ups the ante by doing them frozen.

6 / ROMANTIC DINNER

The sunset views from the terrace of The Rock House are an elixir unto themselves. And after a night spent over stone crab, fresh fish specials, and Junkanoo pasta with shrimp and lobster, someone's bound to propose.

7 / SOUVENIR MUST

A&A Hidden Treasures is a sweet stall on Queen's Highway with trays, baskets, and bags handmade by Alice Mather from silver palm plait.

8 / BOUTIQUE LOVES

India Hicks's haute bohemian Sugar Mill Trading Co. on Bay Street and the charming Blue Rooster on King Street are indispensable style stops.

9 / NEW KID ON THE BLOCK

Dake's Shoppe on Crowne Street is a tastemaker's dream collection of clothing and home goods.

10 / SOFT ADVENTURE

Take the ultimate day sail aboard Sail Eleuthera's elegant sloop Eventide: Beachcomb on uninhabited islands, snorkel crystalline waters, and enjoy a gourmet picnic lunch.
